

CHS Inside Scoop

Good Afternoon, Papermakers, The first day of the 2019/20 school year is right around the corner. I hope that you all have enjoyed a restful summer break.

Student Schedules

In an effort to best serve our students, classes with higher than average sizes will be balanced prior to the start of school. All students should check Skyward on the morning of September 3rd to ensure they attend the most current schedule. Although this may feel like an inconvenience, please know that we are committed to creating the best learning environments for our students by adjusting schedules where needed.
